Clinical Pharmacist – Focused on optimizing medication therapy, monitoring drug interactions, and improving patient outcomes through clinical pharmacy practice.

Projects

Physical and Spectral Characterization of Benzimidazole

-Studied the physical and spectral properties of benzimidazole compounds to understand their chemical characteristics.
-Performed analysis using spectroscopic methods and interpreted results to evaluate compound structure and properties.

Extraction and Identification of Active Constituents of Carica Papaya

-Conducted phytochemical extraction and identification of active medicinal compounds in Papaya.

-Analyzed the potential pharmaceutical applications of plant-based bioactive compounds through laboratory experimentation.

Quality Assessment of Different Commercial and Local Milk available in the local markets of selected area of Coimbatore (Ongoing)

-Collected commercial and locally available milk samples from selected markets in Coimbatore and performed physicochemical, adulteration, and microbial contamination analysis.

-Compared the quality and safety parameters of commercial and local milk, identified microbial contaminants and adulterants, and documented findings to assess compliance with food safety standards.

Education
